TRAVEL REQUEST INFORMATION

Dear Judge Munson:

On November 7, 2001, Juan E. Aquino was sentenced in the U.S. District Court of the Northern Mariana Islands to 60 months probation after pleading guilty to two counts of Felon in Possession of a Firearm and Ammunition, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(1) and 924 (a)(2). His term of probation included the following conditions: that he not commit another federal, state, or local offense; that he comply with the standard conditions of probation; that he not possess a firearm or other dangerous weapon or have at his residence; that he refrain from the use of any alcoholic beverage; that he seek and maintain gainful employment; that he perform 500 hours of community service; that he pay the cost of his probation; and that he pay a $25,000 fine. His term of probation will expire on November 6, 2006.

Mr. Aquino is in compliance with his probation conditions, and reports monthly as required. On April 5, 2002, he completed his community service, and on December 15, 2005, he paid off his $25,000 fine. He is now paying $100 a month towards his cost of supervision, and currently has a balance of $14,238.80. He has been unable to obtain employment due to medical issues, however, he receives income from several rental properties on Saipan.

In September 2005, Mr. Aquino requested to relocate to Gig Harbor, Washington, to live with his son, daughter-in-law, and grandchildren. The U.S. Probation Office for the Western District of Washington conducted an investigation, and on October 13, 2005, approved the transfer of supervision. However, due to financial difficulties and recurring health problems, Mr. Aquino was unable to relocate at that time.

On July 25, 2006, Mr. Aquino advised this Officer that he would like to travel to Washington to relocate permanently. On August 2, 2006, U.S. Probation Officer Michael Markham stated that the Western District of Washington is still willing to accept Mr. Aquino's transfer despite the ten months that have passed since the initial approval.

This Officer supports the request for Mr. Aquino's travel and relocation to the Western District of Washington and seeks the Court's approval to allow him travel to Gig Harbor, Washington, on August 23, 2006.

RESPECTFULLY submitted this 14th day of August 2006.
